Fall Footwear Modes

SLOWLY but surely this store is changing from its summer atmosphere to that of autumn. As we swing into cool autumn days additions to the wardrobe are the thought of fashionably clad women. Footwear is usually given first attention—building from the ground up, as it were.

Graceful lines in two-tone leathers lead the mode

The slender, graceful lines of the new pumps and oxfords are enriched by the two-tone leathers and harmonize with the apparel modes of the moment. To be fashionable your shoes must be correct to the minutest details. Before making your selections see our ample stocks. Prices are as alluring as the styles.

$7.50 to $12.00

Illustrated — Smart, new tongue pump of black satin with patent leather trim. $10.

New Millinery Modes

IT'S autumn in our millinery salon—the exquisite array does not leave its very presence to the imagination. Establishing the vogue in no uncertain tones are these most recent creations. And very little could be more appropriate as the complement of the early fall costume than these

Beautiful hats of rich, lustrous velvet and soft silk duvetyne

One finds the sport hat, street hat and the dressy affair brightened by the charm of aluminum ornaments in dull silver or in gold finish, or perhaps a bit of ostrich, ribbon, a perky quill. Shapes are so plentiful that it is a simple matter to select, and colors are of such magnificence as to become one's complexion.

$10.00 to $35.00

Illustrated — Maison-Lewis model, black velvet, moire ribbon—simple, yet chic—$22.50.

Autumn's First Frocks—Come see them Monday

A Fashion Exhibit, and a special selling—all in one.

Sale of Advance Fall Frocks

More than two hundred lovely new creations for Madame and Madamoselle—choice at one low price

$25.00

STEPPING with exquisite poise and grace, the new dress modes for Fall 1922 will make their initial bow tomorrow, in full confidence that they are intrinsically a part of the correct trend of the types which are to follow as the season grows older.

These new modes speak Greek with a French accent

The creations are of such simpleness, yet so distinctive and different as to excite wonder and admiration among devotees of fashion, and they will surely captivate all women-kind who delight in wearing the new styles first.

Fashioned of superb quality Canton Crepe, heavy Crepe de Chine and Morocco Crepe—straight lines persist. The long skirts, about which so much comment has been made, are present, but modified by irregular hem line and graceful drapes. Waists are below normal; sleeves vary and go to most any extreme for their beauty. Embroidery, braid, girdles and cabachons are popular among the trimmings. The colors are browns—the favorite—tans, navy blue and black.

To see them, whether you have any intention of buying or not, is to receive authoritative information of what's new in dresses.

Sizes for women and misses from 16 to 46. Every dress an exceptional value at $25.

Now Costume Slips Bid for Fall Popularity

And are well timed values at

$1.25 and $2.95

SIMPLY because they lead the field of demand among summer undergarments does not mean they have to take a back seat this fall. No, for costume slips are by odds the most comfortable and neat of all underattire. New styles have just arrived.

Made of fine quality nainsook, finished with deep hems to hip line, which means added warmth and slight fullness in keeping with the new silhouette.

Perfectly plain ones are the kind to have for any emergency, and the really elaborate ones should be hidden only by your best street, dress or party frocks.

They are edged and scalloped and decked out in various ways with fine laces and ribbons.

If you prefer the added luxury of silk, you may choose from crepe de chine, tub silk and radium at $3.75 to $5.95.
